This C.R.P. coming on for admissions this day, the court made the following:

ORDER

The MACT-I, Mysore has refused to release the entire amount of compensation in favour of the claimant-petitioner to meet his medical and other expenses. Hence he has approached this court to modify/revise the said order.

The petitioner admittedly has suffered certain grievous fractures and was treated for the same incurring lot of expenditure. The Tribunal, on his application has released only a sum of Rs. 36,967/- and directed to deposit the balance amount of Rs. 1, lakh in the Punjab National Bank, court compels, Mysore.

The grievance of the petitioner before this court is that he has borrowed a loan to take medical treatment and that he is paying 25% interest for the borrowed amount. Therefore he wants to repay the said loan. Moreover, he has proposed to start a petty business.

Having regard to these submissions and the affidavit filed by the claimant-petitioner, in addition to Rs. 36,967/-, another sum of Rs. 50,000/- is released from the amount already in deposit in Punjab National Bank.

Revision is disposed of accordingly.
